Background

The office of the President of the New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center was established in the agreement of June 14, 1927 between the Society of the New York Hospital and Cornell University.

One of the joint undertakings by the Hospital and the University, as cited in Article III of the Agreement, is the formation of a Joint Administrative Board. Comprised of both New York Hospital and Cornell University Medical College representatives, the Board is headed by a Director, who in later years is referred to as President of the Center. The Board of Governors of New York Hospital and the Board of Cornell University, upon recommendation of the Joint Administrative Board, appoint the Director. His responsibilities are to "unify hospital educational and scientific activities and to implement the full potentialities for public service of the Center".

In later amended versions of the 1927 Agreement, the Director of New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center (the office of President of the Joint Administrative Board was abolished) was responsible for the annual joint budget of the Center and was consulted by the Director of the Hospital and the Deans of the Medical College and Nursing School in respect to their budgets.

The Director is an ex-officio member of the Medical Board of the New York Hospital, the Executive Faculties of Cornell University Medical College and Cornell University-New York Hospital School of Nursing, as well as Councils of the Medical College and Nursing School, Boards and Committees that the Joint Administrative Board designates. He represents the "educational and research interest" of the Center. The Director is responsible for coordinating the activities of the Hospital, Medical College, and Nursing School "so as to promote harmonious and effective cooperation in teaching, research and the care of patients."

Scope and Content

These records encompass the years 1965-1977 when Dr. E. Hugh Luckey held this post. Dr Luckey was influential in working towards, and eventually acquiring from the City of New York, the Air Rights over the Franklin D. Roosevelt Drive, from 63rd through 72nd Streets for expanding the medical center. Dr. Luckey was also active in community relations around the Center, fundraising, and future planning for the Center. His interests and influence ranged from Affirmative Action Programs, to medical history, to the program at the Westchester Division of the New York Hospital. This collection richly details these areas of activity.

The records are the general working files of the President. The files contain mostly correspondence, but also memos, reports, and clippings, arranged alphabetically.
Non-Manuscript Materials

Numerous blueprints and architectural and engineering layouts have been removed and are now housed in the Map Case (see Inventory). The numerous photos which accompanied the Air Rights were removed to the Photograph Collection.
